

CASCADIA JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE 2019 REGIONAL CONVENTION SCHOLARSHIP

Cascadia JCL is pleased to offer two scholarships to youth delegates to help defray the cost of attending the 2019 regional convention. These scholarships, for $100 each, will cover about 60% of the convention cost. The scholarships are intended for students who love classics and are actively involved in their local chapter of JCL, but who might otherwise find the cost of convention attendance a hardship.

Applicants must have their sponsor's recommendation. Additionally, applicants are encouraged (but not required) to provide a peer reference written by a fellow student or other person of student age who knows the applicant well. All materials must be received by the postmarked deadline of Saturday, December 15, 2018. Scholarship recipients will be notified by early January in time for them to meet the convention registration deadline. A Cascadia JCL scholarship is not transferable and may only be applied toward the registration cost of the 2019 regional convention.
