

CALL FOR CANDIDATES

Cascadia JCL Wants You!

We are searching for qualified JCL delegates to apply for positions as officers for next year's Cascadia JCL planning and convention. Being a JCL officer is a great opportunity for delegates to plan and take charge of the convention as student leaders. Elected officers are given considerable power in deciding how the convention is run. If you think you have great ideas for next year's convention and leadership skills comparable to Julius Caesar, you are strongly encouraged to apply for candidacy. Applicants will make a short speech at this year's convention extolling their qualifications. Next, a general election will be held. Please keep in mind that holding a JCL office is an honor which will require sincere commitment and energy. There will be at least two mandatory meetings, but most of your work will be done via email. If you are interested in any of the positions described below or have more questions, please contact current Cascadia JCL Parliamentarian Isaac Crane or Rick Winterstein, Cascadia JCL Regional Chair.

Duties of the President

The President shall preside at all meetings and assemblies; be responsible for the convention program; appoint committees and coordinate their activities; work with the regional chair to prepare for meetings and the convention; and maintain correspondence with fellow officers.

NOMINATIONS ARE DUE TO THE PARLIAMENTARIAN BY TUESDAY, MARCH 9

Duties of the Vice-President

The Vice-President shall serve as the presiding officer in the absence of the President; be responsible for publicizing JCL and promotion of membership; be in charge of hospitality at the fall planning meeting and convention by coordinating efforts with the host facility. The Vice-President, in consultation with the Regional Chair, shall set rules for the spirit contest at the Cascadia JCL Convention, shall select themes for spirit days at the convention, shall judge the spirit competition at the convention, and shall promote spirit and enthusiasm among individual schools for the JCL, their own schools, and the classics in general.

Duties of the Editor

The Editor shall be responsible for the Vox Latina; submit as many editions throughout the year as possible; make one edition available to all delegates at the regional convention.

Duties of the Parliamentarian

The Parliamentarian shall guide meetings in accordance with the JCL constitution and Robert's Rules of Order; supervise the officer elections; be responsible for the questions for officer candidates; be responsible for proposed amendments.

Duties of the Secretary

The Secretary shall record the minutes of the fall planning meeting and the general meetings at the state convention; submit the minutes of the fall planning meeting to the state chair; act as a liaison between this state and the national organization; pass minutes and records on to the succeeding secretary.

Duties of the Historian

The Historian shall compile all JCL materials of historical interest. The Historian shall create a scrapbook of these materials, beginning with materials received from the previous Historian, and present that scrapbook to the regional chair at the convention during which he or she serves as Historian. The Historian shall post results from the previous convention (at which he or she was elected Historian) on the Cascadia JCL website, as well as post any relevant Cascadia JCL information and announcements throughout his or her term of office. The Historian shall also work with the regional chair to maintain and update the Cascadia JCL website, and shall pass all materials and records on to the new Historian for inclusion in the next year's scrapbook at the following convention.
